Austin Chamberlain's Tariff Reform Amendment Brings the First Test of Strength

THE IRISH ALL ABSTAINED

Labourites Supported Ministry but Three Independent Liberals Followed the Course of the Nationalists

London, Feb. 25.—The first trial of strength in the new parliament occurred last night at a crowded session of the House of Commons, when Austin Chamberlain's fiscal amendment was rejected by a vote of 285 to 251. Although victorious only by a narrow majority of 34, the government may regard the result as satisfactory, inasmuch as there was no cross-voting on the part of discomfited groups to overthrow the ministry. All Nationalists, O'Riordanes as well as Redmonds, abstained from voting. The Labourites voted with the Government, and three Liberal, Balfour, Horatio Plimsdell and J. C. Wedgwood, abstained from voting.

Wholesale Express Swindle.

Seranton, Pa., Feb. 25.—Fred Comfort and Harry Hardick, clerks in the employ of the United States Express Co., were arrested today, charged with swindling the company out of thousands of dollars. The police say the two men admitted their guilt and implicated eighteen other employees. Officials of the company refuse to give any details of the wholesale swindling operations of the men until all have been arrested.

Cohalt Won From Canucks.

Cohalt, Feb. 25.—In a game that was decidedly listless in the early stages but which developed into a very fast engagement towards the end, Cohalt defeated the Canadians here last night 11 to 7. The half-time score was 4 to 1. The game was rough, eleven penalties being handed out by Referee Brown. Cohalt players spending 25 minutes on the fence and the Frenchmen 17 minutes. A small crowd witnessed the contest which was productive of some of the most spectacular hockey ever seen here.

CUSHING WILL SPEAK TO-DAY

Mr. Boyle will introduce Resolution
Condemning the A. & G. W. R.
Contract—Debate will Follow

There will not be standing room in the gallery of the legislature this afternoon when the House sits at three o'clock.

The curtain will go up on the political episode which has so long been held in anticipation. Hon. Mr. Cushing will without doubt make his explanation to the House for resigning and will probably be followed in reply by Premier Rutherford, or some member of the government. But this is not all. Mr. Boyle is down on the order paper to move a resolution which in effect condemns the government for the contract made with the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway in that the interests of the province have not been sufficiently safeguarded. This will open a debate in which several members of the legislature will undoubtedly take part.

MR. MEIGHEN'S STRONG TALK

Accuses Sir Wilfrid of Looking Towards Secession from the Empire

Brantford, Ont., Feb. 25.—Declaring that the proposed Canadian navy would be of no more use in time of war than a "penknife in a railway wreck" and that "the entire scheme of an independent navy tended to the abyss of separation," Arthur Meighen, M.P. for Portage la Prairie, last night stated emphatically to a gathering of 250 South Branch Conservatives that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had since the days of his young manhood turned his face from the Empire, confessed at times that the chief goal of his ambition was the separation of Canada and thereby the dismemberment of the Empire, and that he had not only lowered Canada in the eyes of the world by his conduct at several of the Imperial conferences, but was unfit for his position. Mr. Meighen said "the German scare" so called, was very real to him, and added "Sir Wilfrid and his cabinet know that just as soon as the Canadian flag is withdrawn from aiding Britain in a European war, there will be flung the flag of secession." Other speakers were Hon. W. J. Hanna, W. S. Brockster, M.P.P., R. Gurney, M.P.P., and J. H. Fisher, M.P.P.

THE DEPUTY SPEAKERSHIP

Will Probably be Filled by the Appointment of John A. Simpson of Innisfail

The deputy speakership of the legislature is still vacant. It has been offered to L. M. Roberts and to Malcolm McKenzie, but it is understood both have refused to accept. The name of John Simpson, Innisfail, is now mentioned, and it is understood he will accept. Mr. Simpson has had legislative experience in the old Territorial house and in the Alberta legislature for a period extending over fifteen years.

Harry Pollock Arrested.

New York, Feb. 25.—Harry Pollock, sporting promoter, was arrested last night as he left a theatre, charged with assaulting and robbing David A. Russell, a stockbroker. The alleged robbery is said to have taken place in New York on February 9, when Russell was relieved by four men of $5 in a saloon. Pollock protested that his arrest is a police frame-up. He was released on $2,000 bail.

MR. CLARK'S OFFER TO PREMIER RUTHERFORD

The Letter, Tabled in the Legislature Yesterday, in Which the President of the A. & G. W. Expresses Willingness to Build First Fifty Miles of the Road Without Drawing any of the Bond Purchase Money—Over Half a Million Dollars to be Spent in Initial Equipment—Contract for Steel Over the Entire Line Has Already Been Let

The following is the letter in full written by President Clark of the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway to Premier Rutherford yesterday: Hon. A. C. Rutherford,

Legislative Buildings, Edmonton:
Dear Sir:—The Alberta & Great Waterways Railway has recently occupied more than its fair share of public attention and there is observable a disposition on the part of certain members of your legislature to criticize the terms of the agreement between the government and the company with regard to the building of the road. To any one reading the agreement attentively and comparing it with similar agreements made both in this province and in the sister province of Saskatchewan it will be apparent that the agreement is much more stringent against our company than those of other railway companies whose bonds the province has guaranteed. In addition to being subject to the provisions of the provincial railway act, with all that involves, there are a number of restrictions and conditions imposed upon the road that are absent in the case of the other railway companies.

The provisions with regard to the company's obligation to see that all claims against contractors and subcontractors are paid is much wider in the case of this company than the others. The fair wage clause are very much stricter. The provision in our agreement, providing the company from hiring laborers coming from a country that has an alien labor law excluding Canadians is not to be found in the other agreements. The provision compelling our company to carry stone and gravel material by rail, the guarantee act of our company not only gives the province absolute control of the rates, but provides that this company may not amalgamate, lease or transfer its undertaking, or grant any other such right over the railway under the control of any other corporation without the consent of the government. These and other restrictions are mentioned as showing that the agreement with this company is much stricter than in the case of the other companies.

Will Build First-Class Road.
My purpose, however, in writing you is not to complain of the terms of an agreement once made, but to lay at rest, I hope permanently, any question, if such there be, in the mind of any member of your legislature, as to the good faith of myself, and the gentlemen who are associated with me in this enterprise. I am strongly impelled to this course by reason of the fact that, unquestionably, the continued unrest induced by the present situation might very well prove detrimental to the best interests of the company. Our intention from the outset has been to build a railway into the north country that will compare favorably with any road in western Canada or in the western States. As capitalists, we realize that to build a first-class road at the outset is the more economical course to pursue, and we have completed our plans with this in view.

And so that there may be no further doubt upon this point—if doubt there has been—upon the ability and intention of the Company to carry this enterprise to completion, however much it may cost, I have to say to you that I am quite content, and I speak for my associates in the company as well as for myself—to build the first fifty miles of this road without drawing a single dollar of the bond purchase money now standing to the credit of the Provincial Treasurer. We are willing to leave the money in the bank to stand as security that the road will be completed as agreed and will not ask that it be paid to us until the road is completed and equipped. So far as equipment is concerned, we intend spending considerably more than a half a million dollars on initial equipment, and we are quite prepared to give you an assurance that sufficient equipment will be provided, as the construction of the road progresses, to provide the necessary accommodation for freight and passengers, and that the total value of the equipment shall not be less than half a million of dollars.

The Ballasting.
I observe from the daily press that some objection has been taken to the change in our specifications—following the C.N.R. main line and the G.T.P. branch line specifications—with regard to the ballasting of the road. As to this I have to say that we intend to use gravel ballast wherever gravel can be had within a distance that will in the judgment of the government engineer make it practically possible to use, and we are quite willing to undertake to do so. I may state to you that we have already let our contract for steel over the entire line, so that there need be no apprehension as to our paying in other than new steel. If you think this important, we are, of course, willing that this should be made explicit. As to the steel, our contract is let and much the greater proportion of the ties that are being delivered to us under it run seven inches and over, our chief difficulty being to avoid not too small, but too large ties being supplied.

If these changes or additions to the agreement are desired by your government, I shall be glad to hear from you to this effect, and I shall at once call a meeting of the shareholders and directors of the company to ratify them.

A Hair-Raising Experience.
Brookville, Feb. 25.—Hanging by her hair from the shaft of a cutter drawn by a runaway horse was the thrilling experience yesterday of Miss Smith. The runaway collided with her on a crossing and the shaft hooked into her hair, she was dragged a considerable distance, but not badly injured.

Your winter dog wants is our opportunity to show you what kind of service we can give you. Edmonton Drug Co.

LETTER THIEF CAUGHT TODAY

Desire Dances Proves an Elusive Frenchman for Those on his Trail

MADE TWO LUCKY ESCAPES

Now on Trial in Police Court on Charge of Stealing a Mailed Letter and Passing Spurious Checks

Charged with stealing a letter while in the post, Desire Dances, a young Frenchman about 24 years of age, was arrested in the Post Office this morning by Detective Seymour, and immediately placed in custody in the Police Station. Before he had been there three hours, two additional charges, one of forgery, and the other of obtaining goods by false pretences, were laid against the prisoner. The letter that was stolen this morning was addressed to Garriety and Landry, barbers, and was from the C.P.R. He admitted stealing it, as it was found in the inside pocket of his coat.

It is now over three weeks since the police were first notified that someone was apparently stealing letters from the post office, and passing bad checks in various clothing stores around the city. On Feb. 5th, Dances, who was signed E. T. Bishop and sent for $10. It was made payable to "Garriety and Landry." Dances, it is alleged, scratched out the words "and Landry," and put in the initial "W." in front of "Garriety." He then endorsed the cheque in lead pencil, and taking it to H. Brody's clothing store bought some clothes, and gave the cheque in payment, receiving some change. The worthlessness of this cheque was discovered when W. Silver, Brody's father-in-law, attempted to have it cashed at the Molson's Bank.

Another Offence.
Last Saturday night Dances again got busy, and passed a cheque at S. Schultz' clothing store on First street. This cheque he had also obtained from a letter addressed to Garriety and Landry, which he had apparently stolen from the post office. This cheque was from A. L. Marks of Leduc. It was for $15 and was drawn in the Merchants' Bank at Leduc. Dances also forged Mr. Garriety's name to this cheque.

Mr. Landry, of the firm, laid a charge of forgery against Dances, on the strength of this evidence.

The nerve displayed by the prisoner in attempting to cash this cheque was almost colossal. Early last Saturday evening he attempted to get it cashed in the clothing store of Aitken and Fulton on Namoy avenue. Aitken knew Landry's signature, however, and refused to cash it. He was alone in the store at the time, and so had to let Dances go, but as soon as he was out of the store he notified the police. Dances then apparently went to Schultz's store. Schultz himself had been notified, but as he would have it, he was out at the time, and his clerk cashed the cheque, selling Dances a pair of boots.

Escaped Capture.

A few nights ago, this clerk saw Dances on the platform of the C.N.R. station, and grabbing him by the arm told him the cheque was worthless and he would have to make good. Dances broke away and disappeared in the darkness. Two policemen were on the platform at the time, but the clerk did not notify them until after the accused man had escaped. Dances was also nearly caught about two weeks ago. He was walking along Jasper street one evening when

H. B. OFFICIAL FINED $8000

By Sudbury Magistrate in Connection with Seizure of 123 Beaver Pelts

Sudbury, Feb. 25.—Geo. T. Train, Manager of the Bisco Branch of the Hudsons Bay Co., on the main line of the C. P. R., was fined by Magistrate Fournier in Sudbury yesterday, a total of $8,150 and costs or twenty years and six months in the penitentiary. This is a fine of $50 and costs for each of 123 beaver pelts seized, or two months' imprisonment on each charge, terms to run consecutively. Counsel for defendant pleaded for leniency, as it was Train's first offence, but the magistrate took the view that the real offender was the Hudsons Bay Co., which accepted the furs. This is not their first offence, hence the fine. The whole case will be $8,000 and the H. B. Co. will have to pay it.

SHIP YARDS IN CANADA

Dominion Government Negotiating with a Number of Large British Concerns

PLANTS FOR BOTH SEACOASTS

Canadian Firm May Establish at Victoria—Increased Aid for Building of Dry Docks

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—Negotiations between the Canadian government and the representatives of several world-famed ship-building firms, including Harland & Wolff, of Belfast, Vickers Sons and Maxim, for the establishment of Canadian ship yards and dry docks capable of constructing and repairing the largest ocean-going vessels and of building the proposed new war vessels of the Canadian navy have been under way for several months past. It is expected that an announcement will shortly be made that arrangements have been completed for the establishment by one or other of these companies of a steel ship-building plant at Montreal or one of Atlantic coast ports which will rival in capacity anything in America.

By way of further encouraging the establishment of such industry in Canada, thus completing a scheme of Canadian naval defence, the government will, it is understood, shortly bring down a bill increasing the present subsidy granted for building of dry docks. It is now three per cent. per annum for twenty years on a maximum expenditure of $5,000,000. Parliament will be asked to make it 2½ per cent. per annum for twenty-five years, on a total expenditure of probably three million. A steel ship-building plant for the Pacific coast is also contemplated by a firm of capitalists at Victoria, B.C.

TWO LINES HUG ONE ANOTHER

SAYS CONTRACTOR STEWART

Whose Company has Already 5000 Men at Work—G. T. P. will be Through the Mountains in 1912

Montreal, Feb. 25.—Mr. Jack Stewart, of the contracting firm of Roby, Larson and Stewart, left yesterday for the west end, although the world expresses no opinion it is expected that his firm will get the contract for the great expansion from the top of the summit westward, four hundred miles, where the same firm contract of 245 miles running up from Prince Rupert is met with. To date five thousand men are engaged on the section of 320 miles west of Edmonton and on 245 miles west from the Pacific and a great army more will be put out during the coming summer. The manager states that 1912 will see the road open from the Pacific through to the mountains, and enough is known as to the situation through the pass a distance of sixty miles, to justify Mr. Stewart's saying that there is room for twenty sets of rails. The most surprising part of his statement, however, is to the effect that the MacKenzie & Mann survey and absolute location fully backs the Great Trans-Pacific from Edmonton westward, a distance of 350 miles. The two lines will be practically in sight of each other for all this distance.

FOUR KILLED IN SNOWSLIDE

Serious Disaster Overtakes Party of Prospectors in Montana Mountains

Missoula, Mont., Feb. 25.—Six persons were killed in a snowslide at Adair in the Bitter Root Mountains today. The bodies of four prospectors have been recovered and sixty men are digging for the other two, one of them a woman.

Disaster Narrowly Averted

Kamloops, Feb. 24.—C.P.R. train No. 66 struck a broken rail while rounding a curve three miles west of Spence's Bridge last night at eleven o'clock. The engine and baggage car passed safely, the balance of the train which was ten cars, left the track and only by remaining wall prevented them from being precipitated into the Thompson river. There is a steep rocky bluff at that point. Had the train gone over the loss of life would have been appalling. No one was hurt and the Pullman passengers all slept through the wreck. Brakeman Drinkwater of the wrecking train sent down from here going between two cars stepped over the wall and fell twelve feet, slipped another too late and then another drop. He was rescued but is in a precarious condition.

Calgary, Feb. 24.—The Tigers returned from Didsbury last night victorious, having defeated the Didsburys by the crushing score of 11 to 0. They were well received by the Didsbury crowd and claim that they had an easy time defeating their opponents. Alex. McHugh and Walter played on the Tiger line, substituting White and Wes King. Art Lewes and McHugh figured in most of the scoring. It was the Tiger defence which prevented the "lovers from scoring, they being unable to get through and Powell looked after all stray shots.

WANDERERS AND
RENFREW TONIGHTOne of the Crucial Games of the Season is Scheduled for the Creamery City this Evening

One of the big hockey matches of the season takes place this evening at Renfrew when the Wanderers play the Millionaires out of the running. On the other hand if Wanderers win it gives them a little advantage over Ottawa as the Cup holders have still a game to play in the Butternut City (as King Clancy calls Renfrew). The Wanderer team will be the same as defeated Ottawa: Goal, Riley Hearn; point, Jack Marshall; cover-point, Johnson; forwards, Hyland, Ernie Russell, Glass and Gardner. The Renfrew line-up is uncertain as Coach Alf. Smith is having a fine time these days shifting players around, laying them off, putting them on the team again, and cutting up all kinds of dodes. Even the Kerfess Fredericks Taylor is not sure of his position, and our own Fred Whitcroft is very much on anxious seat. Ottawas lost much prestige on account of their poor showing against the lowly Shamrocks. The Irish led at half time and it was only a little hard language at the interval that caused the Ottawas to brace up and win out, saving themselves from being put out of the race in a very unexpected manner.

The situation at present seems to point to Wanderers as the champions for 1910.

The remaining games to be played in the league are:
Feb. 25.—Wanderers at Renfrew.
Feb. 26.—Cobalt at Ottawa.
March 2.—Cobalt at Wanderers.
March 5.—Cobalt at Canadians.
March 5.—Wanderers at Ottawa.
March 8.—Cobalt at Shamrocks.
March 8.—Ottawa at Renfrew.
March 9.—Canadians at Wanderers.

March 11.—Shamrocks at Canadians.
March 11.—Cobalt at Renfrew.
March 15.—Halleybury at Cobalt.
The tied game between Renfrew and Shamrocks, in which the Joe Hall fracas took place, will be played in Ottawa on March 2nd.

IT HAPPENED
IN LACOMBEIt Seems that the Man who was Judge of Play here, Retereed the Game in Lacombe—He was Awful

Lacombe Globe:
"The game from a score point of view was a victory for the Adamans, with the score 3-4. As was seen in the beginning, it was up to Lacombe to play seven men against Adamans' eight—one of which furnished the bell and called himself an impartial referee. Whether he had an antagonistic feeling for our boys is not yet known, though surely he does not need to have some of his northern friends remind him of the fact that his actions were anything but those necessary to the discharge of his duties. We understand he is not originally an Adaman man. He looked like a football player, and doubtless got the games badly mixed. It is difficult to make a guess at the cause of the partiality he displayed. The Adaman men themselves cannot account for it, and if the suggestion set forth is not applicable, some unknown thing influenced the man, causing him to see off-sides, and clearing his vision of black sweaters at proper times. However, Lacombe went down to defeat.

Jack Beattie was cut rather badly by a slash on the head, one Adaman also received a injury."

For once we agree with the Globe. Mr. Pettipiece is without doubt the worst hockey official in the world.

JEFFRIES IS
THE FAVORITEOdds of 10 to 7 Posted in New York
—Californian Made the First Large Bet

New York, Feb. 24.—On receipt of news today from California that Clarence Berry, the oil and mining operator, had bet $2,000 to $1,400 on Jim Jeffries, Charles Sutz taking the Johnson end, odds of 10 to 7 were posted today at the Hotel Albany, the hostelry presided over by "Boh" Murphy, the temporary stakeholder for the big fight.

The California bet is the first legitimate wager of any size yet made on the fight, and the odds of 7 to 10 greatly interested the New York sports. The odds are about what were expected, though there is no doubting that the Johnson followers are still more pleased.

The Johnsonites were afraid that the initial odds would not be better than 10 to 9, and now that they are getting a much better price they are eagerly snapping up the 10 to 7 proposition, under the belief that the odds will shorten as the date for the fight draws near.

Bruce Stuart's broken shoulder is healing rapidly, but he will not be able to leave the hospital until about 10. If Ottawa loses the championship they can thank the man who injured Stuart. The cup holders have missed their captain in the worst possible way.

Chance with the Conquering Ad.

Baltimore, Mo., Feb. 24.—Joe Gans, former lightweight champion, tonight issued a challenge to Ad Wolgast for a twenty-round contest to be fought anywhere the champion wishes and under any conditions he may name. Gans said he would go to New York next week and post $1,000 to bind the agreement if accepted and that he would also make a side bet of $2,000. "This thing is no question of money, however," the former champion added, "and I want it understood that I believe I can lick Wolgast."

MCCOY CALLS
JEFF A FREAKSays that the Smoke can Only Expect to Collect Second Money in the Coming Encounter

(By "Kid" McCoy.)

If Jim Jeffries were a natural, human-like fighter, Jack Johnson would have a chance.

But his Jeff is really a freak, classifying far above the average pugilist, the big black fighter can only hope to collect second money when he stacks up against the retired champion. Don't let that bawl, "he can't come back," feaze you. Don't worry over the loud songs about Johnson's cleverness, and don't let them dazzle you. These two phrases should be discarded roughly and thrown into the discard, where they belong. I have been in the fighting game for many years and know a little something of condition. I don't hesitate to say that Jeffries is now back. The last time he was in New York the law fellow was as hard as nails, and had his old reliable wallop with him.

About Johnson's reputed cleverness, we must give it to him. He is a pretty shifty negro. That lets him out. The terrible "haymaker" that a champion should have, however, is missing in Johnson. And he expects to beat Jeff. A pretty good Joe Miller. In fact, I will use it in my vaudeville sketch.

For ten years this young woman has lived in Asia, Europe and America as "Lord Hamilton-Grey, of Scotland." She came to grief when her appearance, dressed in well-fitting men's clothing, attracted the attention of Policeman Frank Cavasca and Richard M. McKenna, of Police Headquarters in New York.

Hockey Recognized in U. S.

The athletic executive committee of Princeton University has awarded the varsity "P" to the eight members of the Princeton hockey team, which recently won the intercollegiate hockey championship by defeating Cornell, Columbia, Dartmouth, Yale and Harvard. This establishes a precedent among championship Princeton minor teams, as the hockey team this year is the first championship team other than baseball, football or track ever to receive the varsity letter.

SASKATOON vs.
EDMONTONProfessional Champions of Saskatchewan, Flushed with Victory Over
Prince Albert, are After the Fit-
Return Cup

Saskatoon by their victory at Prince Albert on Tuesday evening won the professional championship of Saskatchewan. And well may they be proud of the exalted honor.

Harold Deeton, Edmonton's speedy centre forward, returned yesterday from a flying visit to Prince Albert. During his visit he was prevailed upon to help out the Saskatoon team. Our own Hugo Ross was conspicuous by his absence. It was expected that Ross would play cover-point for Saskatoon, but a couple of days ago a sad accident happened. His famous Moose Jaw team, which had even gone so far as to entertain Fit Reform ambitions, took a little jant to Moosomin. What happened to Moose Jaw was a shame, whisper it, 14 to 1. Since then the dauntless Hugo, hero of a hundred battles, has been in strict retirement. Saskatoon thought Moosomin must have a pretty good lunch and borrowed two men for Tuesday night.

Bert Boulton played his same dashing game. He plays again tonight in a contest between two Saskatoon teams, the Strathcons and the Hoos. The Strathcons tried to prevail on Deeton to stay over but he couldn't spare the time.

Saskatoon will put in a challenge for the Fit-Reform Cup for a certainty. It is reported they are signing men already for the series. Edmonton will be able to scrape up a team to give them a run for their money. Bert Boulton will be in the city on Saturday, so we will have Winchester, Deeton and Boulton as the nucleus of a seven. The remaining four position will be quite easily filled. These games will take place early in March and should draw well.

INTERPRETATION
OF NEW RULESSilk O'Loughlin Puts the Recent Big League Amendments in Readable Language

Here is something it would be well for you baseball fans to study carefully or you will find yourselves a little behind the game when the season starts. This is a summary of the new rules, and was prepared by "silk" O'Loughlin, the American League umpire of "strike talk" fame. The coach's box has been limited, so that the coach cannot approach nearer to first base than fifteen feet. The dead line is drawn at an imaginary line directly through first and second bases.

The Captain will no longer have to appeal to an umpire for small offences, such as the uncourtly use of new balls, etc. It has been placed up to the judge of play to warn such things himself.

When a player is substituted or shifted from one position to another the captain must notify the umpire, and the latter must announce this fact to the spectators.

The batting order of both teams must be delivered by the respective captains to the umpire at the home plate before play begins, and the players thereon must participate in the game.

Runner is allowed three bases if a player on the defence throws a glove or a mask at a batted ball, and succeeds in hitting it or impeding its progress.

The umpire judging balls and strikes is the "chief." The other umpire has jurisdiction over first and second bases.

Every player gets an assist who assists in play, even though he is credited with a put out. Thus a player can get a put out and assist on the same play.

Betting is 7 to 6 in Favour of Millionaires

(From our Own Correspondent)
Ottawa, Feb. 25.—The Ottawa hockey fans pick the Renfrew millionaires to win against the Wanderers. Betting is 7 to 6 in favor of Renfrew. Coach Alf Smith of Renfrew will play Jack Fraser at right wing, to hold down Gardner, who is the Wanderers' great scorer. Miller will play left wing and Whitcroft centre, and Lester Patrick rover. Defence, Fred Taylor, Frank Patrick and Lindsay. The Creamery Town must win tonight in order to win the Stanley Cup. Renfrew backers are willing to put up $25,000 at 2 to 1, but there is little Wanderer money in sight.

MEDICINE HAT

Year's Team with Billy Hamilton as Manager

At a meeting of baseball fans at Medicine Hat it was pronounced in no uncertain voice that the city was in the field to land the pennant of the Western Canada Baseball League for the third consecutive time.

A statement of last year's finances showed expenditures amounting to $10,228, with receipts $777 less. Arrangements were made to wipe off this small outstanding indebtedness, and as the club has retained the services of all last year's championship team, with the exception of Fitcher Whisman, prospects are rosy for a successful year.

The election of officers resulted in the choice for president falling on William Consins, with James Fleming, W. R. Martin, J. D. McGregor and G. W. Elliott and A. M. Grace as directors. Billy Hamilton will again be offered the management.

Pete Years for Calgary.

Seattle, Feb. 24.—Bill Carney, who will manage the Calgary team this season, had a visit yesterday from Director Johnson, of Calgary. They talked over the plans for the season and decided to train in Seattle. Carney said last evening that he would try to get the University of Washington to give him permission to practice out there. The old Madison street grounds have also been recommended to him. Pete Standridge thinks he will pitch for Calgary this year. He has signed with Vancouver, but says that Bob Brown told him he could go to Calgary if he saw fit.

Montreal Herald.

"Is that the sporting editor?"
"Yes."
"Well, did you want any tickets for the hockey match?"
"Do you want to give any away—whose speaking, any?"

"This is Mr. Smith, of the ——— I've got four tickets in a row which you can have for twenty dollars, or I've got two that I can sell you for ten dollars, or one single one for five dollars. If you don't want them and know anybody else who does (you might send them along."

Now the foregoing is no dream. It is just what happened right in The Herald office yesterday afternoon.

And the same sort of thing was enacted at dozens of other points during the day.

For do all they can to guard against the speculators and the price hoasters, the Arena have not yet been able to devise a means of putting the plans of the speculative gentry to the bad.

Eleven hundred tickets placed on sale were limited to two for each purchaser in yesterday's sale, but a thing like that is easily got around by pressing a number of boys into service.

Three boys will bring back six tickets—half a dozen boys will bring back twelve tickets and the kiddie as a rule well satisfied with a dollar for his all-night wait round the bleak corner of St. Catherine street and Wood avenue.

Messenger boys of the telegraph and messenger companies, and the youngsters who ply the paper-selling industry on the streets in the afternoon seem to be the willing curriers of the speculator. The kiddie gets well paid for his trouble, and after all he regards it more or less as a lark.

But it's no joke for the everyday citizen who wants to buy a couple of tickets and gets down to his office in good time in the morning.

In the case of the present Wanderers-Ottawa match that would have been impossible anyway for the tickets were not placed on sale until the early afternoon. Immediately after the pasteboards were disposed of at the box office yesterday they were almost immediately offered for sale again on the steps in front of the building. The first to get their tickets were those who had waited longest, but they had no trouble in disposing of them—at five per—right off the bat.

Other fancy prices were asked a little later. One individual was asked how much he would take, and the reply was ten dollars. He was laughed at.

"Never mind," says he, "I'll get ten dollars tomorrow, all right."

And the chances are, unfortunately, that he did.

On the other hand prices may come down as they have done in the past and the speculators may be glad to get rid of their tickets below their face value round the Arena doors. There doesn't seem to be much fear of that this year, however.

One box of six seats was reported to have been sold for fifty dollars.

New Bowling Record.

Rochester, N.Y., Feb. 25.—Larry Sutton, who won the individual championship at the last American bowling congress, established what is believed to be a world's ten-pin record on Tuesday night, by averaging 252 for nine games. His scores were 252, 275, 199, 234, 267, 255, 244, 215, 272.

Cobalt and Halleybury waged $8,000 on their last hockey game, though how much of it was money and how much in mining stocks cannot be ascertained till the books are audited.

JOE MCGINNITY
IS CRUELThe Newark Magnate Tells Players to Leave Wives at Home—Trip is for Training, not Spring
Shopping

Joe McGinnity has put his foot down on wives of Newark players making the spring training trip; with wives on the trip, Joe says, the players make a sight-seeing trip of their training.

"The trip is not going to be a joy party," said McGinnity. "It will be a case of work from the time we reach the South, and the players will have no excuse to be taken away from their duties in that line."

"There is but little doubt that there will be plenty of work from the time we land in Virginia," said the "Iron Man." "We will try out some new men on the trip, and I have no doubt that they will make good. The boys, one and all, will take to the work with a will. We all have an over-abundance of flesh, secured during the winter, but sensible work will put the men in shape in short order."

They Feared Trouble.

Anticipating a possible recurrence of the riotous scenes that marked the meeting between the Ottawa and Wanderer teams in 1908, the Arena management Saturday made arrangements to have a corps of one hundred and fifty police, special constables and ushers to handle the crowd.

Calgary Soccer Meeting.

The Calgary city football club will shortly call a meeting to finish up last season's affairs. Last year outside of beating the champions Callies the season was not a very successful one for the white and blacks, and some of the officers of the club were talking of a possibility of it being the last year of the city existence. Jack McEwen, however, is of the opinion that when the city hold again annual meeting they will again reorganize and play soccer football with a team better and stronger than ever.

Many hockey fans from Edmonton will journey across the river to witness the last game for the championship of Northern Alberta. Strathcona won the first game in Lloydminster by one goal and expect to do much better this evening. The game is called for 8.15 sharp.

Deacons and Tigers.

Games are being arranged between the Deacons, of Edmonton, and the Lacombe team and the Tigers. These two northern teams are considered as strong as any in northern Alberta and a home and home series with such opponents will about settle which is the premier team of the province. The Deacons are now tied with Stentler, Macdonald and Coleman are the champion teams of the south and it is expected that they will both appear here this winter.—Calgary Herald.

The Man From Brodney's

By GEORGE BARR M'CUTCHEON

Copyright, 1908, by Dodd, Mead & Co.

A handsome young soldier of fortune, a princess of enchanting beauty, two eccentric adventurers who leave wills disposing of the island of Japan and its ruby mines, two heirs who must marry within a year to inherit the property despite the fact that they are already married, a shrewd American lawyer, a scheming British solicitor, a pretty stenographer, a prince who is musical and profligate and a horde of fanatical Moslems who will inherit the riches of Japan provided the heirs do not marry each other—these are the leading characters in a romance which for genuine novelty, thrilling and unusual situations, live American humor and the pathos of a great but apparently hopeless love has rarely been equaled and never surpassed.

CHAPTER I

THE death of Taswell Skaggs was stimulating, to say the least, in applicable though the expression may seem. He attained the end of a hale old age by tumbling aimlessly into the mouth of a crater on the island of Japan, somewhere in the mysterious south seas. The world had quite thoroughly forgotten him during the twenty odd years immediately preceding his death. It was, however, noticeably worth while to remember him at this particular time. He left a last will and testament that bade fair to distress as well as stirle a great many people on both sides of the Atlantic.

In Boston the law firm of Bowen & Hare was puzzling itself beyond reason in the effort to anticipate and circumvent the plans of the firm of Bosworth, Newnes & Grapewin, London, E. C. while on the other side of the Atlantic Messrs. Bosworth, Newnes & Grapewin were blindly struggling to do precisely the same thing in relation to Messrs. Bowen & Hare.

Without seeking to further involve myself I shall at once conduct the reader to the nearest of these law offices.

"Pretty badly tangled, I declare," said Mr. Hare, staring helplessly at his senior partner.

"Hopelessly," agreed Mr. Bowen, very much as if he had at first intended to groan.

Before them on the table lay the contents of a bulky envelope, a long and superfluous letter from their London correspondents and with it a copy of Taswell Skaggs' will. Mr. Bowen recently had been named as joint executor of the will, together with Sir John Aldenborough of London, W. C., one time neighbor of the late Mr. Skaggs.

A long and exasperating cablogram had touched somewhat irresolutely upon the terms of the will, besides notifying him that one of the heirs resided in Boston. He was instructed to apprise this young man of his good fortune.

There was one very important, perhaps immovable, feature in connection with the old gentleman's will—he was decidedly sound of mind and body when it was uttered.

When such serious lawyers as Bowen & Hare give up to amazement, the usual forerunner of consternation, it is high time to regard the case as strange.

"Read it again, Bowen."

"Yes, the letter."

"Well, Mr. Bowen again read aloud the letter from Bosworth, Newnes & Grapewin, this time slowly and reverently."

"They seem as much upset by the situation as we," he observed reflectively.

"Extraordinary state of affairs, I must say."

"And I don't know what to do about it. I don't even know how to begin. They're both married."

"And not to each other."

"She's the wife of a Lord knows what of a lord, and he's married to an uncommonly fine girl, they say, notwithstanding the fact that she has larger social aspirations than he has."

"And if that all important clause in the will is not carried out to the letter the whole fortune goes to the wrong man."

"Practically the same thing. He calls them 'natives,' that's all. It looks to me as though the wrong man will get the old man's millions."

don't see how anything short of Providence can alter the situation."

"Thank heaven, Bowen, he names you as executor, not me."

"I shall decline to serve. It's an impossible situation, Hare. In the first place, Skaggs was not at all a native friend of mine. I met him in Constantinople five years ago and afterward handled some business for him in New York. He had no right to impose upon me as if—"

"But why should you hesitate? You have only to wait for the year to roll by and then turn your troubles over to the natives. Young Bowen can't marry Miss Ruthven inside of a year simply because there is no Miss Ruthven. She's Lady—Lady—what's the name?"

"Dorplingham."

"And Bowen already has one Mrs. Bowen to his credit, don't you see. Well, that settles it, I'd say. It's hardly probable that Bowen will murder or divorce his wife, nor is it likely that her ladyship would have the common sense to dispose of her inheritance in either way on such short notice."

"But it means millions to them, Hare."

"That's their unfortunate lookout. You are to act as an executor, not as a matrimonial agent."

"But, man, it's an outrage to give all of it to those wretched islanders. Bosworth says that rubies and sapphires grow there like mushrooms."

"Bosworth also says that the islanders are thrifty, intelligent and will fight for their rights. There are lawyers among them, he says, as well as jeweled diadems and fishermen."

"Skaggs and Lady Dorplingham's grandfather were the only white men who ever lived there long enough to find out what the island had stored up for civilization. That's why they bought it outright, but I'm hanged if I can see why he wants to give it back to the natives."

"Perhaps he once it to them. He doubtless bought it for a song, and contrary to all human belief, he may have resuscitated a conscience. Anyhow, there remains a chance for the natives to break the will."

"It can't be done, Hare; it can't be done. It's as clean an instrument as ever survived a man."

It is by this time safe for the reader to assume that Mr. Taswell Skaggs had been a rich man and therefore privileged to be eccentric. He came of a sound old country family in upper England, but seems to have married a girl above his station. His wife was a young as governess in the home of a certain earl when Taswell won her heart and dragged her from the exalted position of managing other people's children into the less conspicuous one of caring for her own.

His only son was killed by a runaway horse when he was twenty, and their daughter became the wife of an American named Bowen when she was scarcely out of her teens. Taswell Skaggs, it was generally believed, was determined to make himself wifeless as well.

He magnanimously deeded the unentailed farm to his wife, turned his ventures into cash and then set forth upon a voyage of exploration. It is common knowledge that one dark still night in December he said goodnight forever to the farm and its mistress, and it is doubtful if either of them heard him.

To be "jolly well even" with him Mrs. Skaggs did a most priggish thing. She died six months later, but before doing so she made a will in which she left the entire estate to her daughter, eventually depriving the absent husband of any chance to reclaim his own.

Taswell Skaggs was in Shanghai when he heard the news. It was on a Friday. His informant was that erstwhile friend Jack Wreckholme. Naturally Skaggs felt deeply aggrieved, with the fate which permitted him to quarrel when unconditional survey was so close at hand. His language for the brief quarter of an hour did more to excite the possessors of Christian endeavor in the far east than all the idols in the Chinese empire.

There's a scurvy in England for me, Jack. Mr. Galt's a blundering fellow by this time, and she'll sell the bloody farm, of course. She's an American. God bless 'er heart. I dare say if I go to 'er and say I'll like my farm back again she'd want to fork over. But 'er island wouldn't be for that sort of hextravagance. I'd boot me off the island."

"The United States isn't an island, Tazzy," exclaimed Mr. Wreckholme, smiling at his friend's outburst.

Mr. Wreckholme was the second son of Sir Somebody-or-other and had married the vicar's daughter. This put him into such bad odor with his firm that he had to be humped off to the docks and a goodly sized manœuvre besides if the

THE DAY IN STRATHCONA

Budget of News from the City on the South Bank of the River

Dr. E. K. Broadus will deliver a lecture in the Extension Lecture Course tonight in Red Deer.

The second game in the semi-finals will be played tonight in Strathcona Rink between Lloydminster and Strathcona. Strathcona won the first game by the narrow margin of one goal, and Lloydminster will endeavor to overcome that lead tonight. The winners will play off with the leaders of the southern district.

vision for the Rutherford Cup. The Seena team will have a few changes in the line-up from the team that played in Lloydminster.

Dr. W. H. Alexander delivered a most instructive lecture last night on "Marcus Aurelius, the Noblest Roman of Them All." The lecture covered the life of the ancient stoic from his childhood, through the various phases of his busy life to his death. It conveyed the idea of the wonderful statecraft of a man who was not only a brave general and just ruler, but was above all a philosopher. It is a source of regret to all members of this class that the course is completed and all unite in expressing their appreciation of the lectures delivered by Prof. Alexander and Prof. Broadus.

It is expected that Ald. Dorman and Lundrum will arrive home on Saturday or early in the following week.

At one o'clock on Saturday the farmers of the Strathcona district will hold a mass meeting for the purpose of discussing the feasibility of having a pork packing plant under government control. A full attendance of farmers is requested as this meeting will have a strong bearing on the attitude of the government towards the question.

Attell Defeated Neil

New York, Feb. 25.—Abe Attell, featherweight champion, put it all over Frankie Neil in a ten-round bout before the Longacre A. C. last night. It was Attell's fight from start to finish. Neil was exhausted after the second round and so far outclassed, that it appeared as if Attell could have put him out at any time had he so desired. So one-sided and uninteresting was the contest that the spectators spent a good part of the evening whistling dreamy waltzes in unison.

EXTRA VOTES FOR WORKERS

Contestants, Get Busy Now—The Schedule of Votes has Been Doubled for the Next Seventeen Working Days of the Contest—100 per Cent. Increase

WINNER OF THE SPECIAL PRIZE ANNOUNCED TO-MORROW

Don't fail to read and take advantage of the great Extra Vote offer announced today. Before you forget it, you had better turn to the half-page announcement before you finish this contest story.

Now do you see how much is to be gained by getting busy at once? Any wide-awake candidate can get four or five yearly subscriptions for the Daily Capital from their friends in a day or less. Wouldn't that boost your score handsomely? Well, rather.

The opportunity for a new candidate to catch up with the leaders could not be improved upon. People who have been "thinking" about entering should make up their minds very quickly. No more nominations will be received after some time next week, probably about Wednesday. Get into the game while a greatly advanced schedule of votes remains in force.

While the Extra Vote offer runs until March 14—about two and a half weeks—it is not a good plan to put off seeing your friends. From now on the candidates who are in earnest—and the published score yesterday brought many of them in the line—will be busy explaining to their friends the advantages of giving their subscriptions while the extra offer is on. Not wishing to take advantage of those who turned in subscriptions before this date, this offer will apply on all subscriptions turned in previously to to-day; and the votes the candidates are entitled to will be issued when called for, or mailed to candidates who do not call.

Offer Not Extended or Repeated

This increased vote offer will not be extended after March 14, or repeated or as good or better offer made. It affords candidates who get busy an opportunity to materially advance their standing.

Many of the Capital's contestants are figuring on laying up a reserve vote. There will be no better time than right now to commence "banking" votes.

The candidates in Districts 3 and 4 have the privilege of mailing subscriptions up to midnight of March 14, and the extra votes will be given on March 15.

This gives all contestants an equal chance to solicit votes up to the last minute of the offer.

It is always a good plan to turn in each evening the money collected during the day, so that the same may be entered on the books and the paper started to new subscribers at once.

Candidates in Districts 3 and 4 should send in returns at least once a week, or oftener if any considerable number of names are secured.

This is an offer you cannot afford to overlook. It is easier to get free votes now than to wait and have to get an extra number of subscriptions later on.

VOTING SCHEDULE UNTIL MARCH 14

This schedule will remain in force until the above date, after which the old schedule will prevail.

CONSTABULARY'S GOOD WORK

In Repressing the Disorders in Connection with Philadelphia Strike

Philadelphia, Feb. 24.—This was a day of peace following five days of war. The business-like state constabulary, 350 strong, were responsible for it. Before they reported and when the early riers appeared upon the streets in the districts that have heretofore been troublesome because of the street car riots, they found the mounted rangers, with clubs, carbines and revolvers, and handcuffs hanging over their saddles, promptly settling up and down, neither seeking fight nor avoiding it, but ready for whatever might turn up.

As a consequence there was not a shot fired today, where during the preceding days hundreds of bullets have whistled through the normally peaceful Quaker City air. There was scarcely a brick thrown, although the trouble makers had been shattered previously so many glass windows of the trolley cars had been shattered that glassers throw up their hands and say that there is not any more glass of the right size and sort left in town.

For the first time since the strike began, cars ran tonight on the principal lines—Thirtieth and Fourteenth streets and Chestnut and Walnut streets. These met with no violence and the crowds of at least some of them enjoyed the luxury of riding home in an electrically propelled vehicle instead of in the wagon that their vegetable hucksters sold them potatoes from in the morning.

Company Claims Victory.

The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company is now making the unofficial statement that it has won the strike and apparently it could run its cars provided no violence is offered the crews. There were about 30 cars running to-day and tonight after dark about 60. Of course that is a ridiculously small number for a town of a million and three-quarters of people, but compared to the number that have been running earlier in the week, it is vast.

No Quarter to Strikers.

"No quarter to the striker" is now the motto of the company. It showed that when tonight after a meeting of the various heads it disregarded the arbitration offered by the clergymen of the town, including the Catholic and Episcopal churches. This proposition was to the effect that a board of referees comprising seven men should settle the differences between employees and employer. The transit company was to select one local judge, one representative business man and one clergyman. The strikers were to do likewise. Then the combined arbitrators were to select between them the seventh.

"We'll stand pat," declared the transit heads when they reviewed the day's situation and looked over the arbitration offer. So they laid the offer on the table and announced that it would consider the clergymen's communication at the next regular meeting of the directors, which will be held a week from next Monday.

Tomorrow the company will have nearly half the usual number of cars running, it says. If it has men to operate them, no doubt it will ride in them for the feeling of uneasiness has largely passed, thanks to the constabulary, an air is compared of nitrogen and oxygen again instead of helium and bromine.

Police Have Easy Day

The mounted police from up-state had an easy day of it. They were spread out chiefly through the Kensington mill's district and they laughed and joked with the 12½ population up there and gained in friendship right away. Once some working men at Seventh street and Columbia avenue threw some orange peelings and like soft missiles at a number of constabulary men who were riding past. In an instant riders had whirled around and had covered the faceless citizens with their 44's. The citizens slunk away. Again at Fourth and Oxford streets, there was a trifling mix-up between fifteen constabulary men, who did not look very much and a crowd of 350 striker sympathizers. A trolley car managed by a non-union crew passed the corner and its men were jeered. The troopers took no action, but smiled good naturedly. Then some one threw a brick and it did not hit, then a shower of stones was directed at the quiet constabulary riders.

About Town

There will be a band at the Thistle Rink this evening.

There will be a bowling match at the Y.M.C.A. this evening between teams captained by Grant and J. Knott.

At the King Edward—F. F. Wood-ward, Medicine Hat; A. L. Lewis, Calgary; G. F. McDonald, Calgary; R. W. Chamberlain, T. Gillies, Winnipeg; Bruce H. Curry, Winnipeg; Ernest Roberts, Montreal.

A meeting of the Sons of England A.A.A. will be held in Ernest Brown's studio, Jasper avenue east, this evening at eight o'clock. The committee wishes everyone concerned to attend.

The second paper of the series now being held at the Edmonton School of Music will be read by the director on Saturday, February 26th, at 2 p.m., in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church. The soloist will be Miss Jean McLean.

In the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon the jury in the Feldt vs. Marquart slander case brought in a verdict of $300 for the plaintiff. Feldt had asked for $1000 damages. Marquart will have to pay the costs, which in this case will amount to considerably more than the damages.

The Lehigh Herald publishes a despatch from Edmonton saying that it is reported that Hon. P. E. Lessard, minister without portfolio in the Balfour government, will be appointed lieutenant-governor of the province at the expiration of Lieutenant-Governor Bulyea's term.

The game between Lloydminster and Strathcona will take place at 8:30 this evening at the latter place. The lineup of the Strathcona team is: Goal, Clark; point, Raitt; cover-point, McLeod; rover, Jim Sutherland; centre, Dixon; left wing, Parsons or Scarborough; right wing, Newman.

Miss Beatrice Meade, leading lady of the National Stock Co., who has been very ill all week, was completely prostrated last evening after the performance of the "Brixton Bargain" at the Empire. She is much improved today and will be able to resume her part this evening in her accustomed clever manner.

At the Alberta—M. R. Chadleigh, Wolf Creek; L. J. Palmatier, Regina; J. J. Tomlinson, L. L. Conrad, Winnipeg; J. N. Davidson, Calgary; H. Boyd, Montreal; J. A. Henson, Winnipeg; J. F. Munro, Pembroke; Ont.; F. B. Hood, Wolf Creek; G. F. McCrea, Winnipeg; M. Schweitzer, C. W. Carroll, Leduc; W. M. Davidson, Calgary.

The annual meeting of the City Football League will be held in the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday evening, March 1st, at 8 p.m. It is expected the Sons of England will make application for admission. The teams that joined the league last year were Y.M.C.A., Callies, All Saints, St. George's, Strathcona, Norwood, 101st and Hibernians.

Great interest is already being aroused throughout Canada and the United States by the reports of the splendid new exhibition park and building being laid out by the Edmonton Exhibition directors. Manager Harrison received a letter from Winnipeg this morning asking to have space reserved in the projected manufacturers' building, and another from Jacksonville, Florida, applying for refreshment privileges for 1910.

The St. David's Society will hold their annual banquet at the Lewis Cafe, Jasper avenue, on St. David's Day, March 1st, at 8 p.m. Every member of the society is earnestly requested to attend and all Welsh people, together with those who are interested in Welsh affairs in Edmonton, will be cordially welcomed. The banquet will be followed by a fine musical treat. Tickets may be had from any of the officials of the society or from various members, also at Lewis' Cafe, $1.50.

GOOD TIME AT CITADEL

Hospitality of Salvation Army Extended to a Large number of Guests

At 5:30 last evening the Salvation Army Citadel was comfortably filled with a crowd eager for the supper which was to take place. The request was donated by the business men of the city, who have always shown themselves appreciative of the Salvation Army and the great work it is doing here.

The proceeds last evening ensured the committee of a nice sum to cover the cost of decorating the interior of the Citadel. Nearly $100 was secured.

Mrs. Westgate's orchestra discoursed sweet music during the period of supper and afterwards Rev. Mr. Lewis, pastor of the Methodist Church at Norwood, delivered an interesting address.

The Army has spent considerable money re-decorating the interior of the hall. The band has had a new platform provided for its use, and in the front is a handsome archway. The walls are covered with panels containing appropriate Scriptural references, and emblems significant of the work of the Salvation Army.

A large design in gold, at the rear of the platform, representing the "Gates Ajar," adds to the appearance of the hall.

A cradle roll has recently been opened by the Army, and on Sunday next about eight children's names will be entered on it.

LETTER THIEF

CAUGHT TO-DAY

Brushed, and a clerk by the name of Jones, saw him pass the store. They rushed out, grabbed him, and brought him into the store. Then one man held him, while the other telephoned for the police. The prisoner, however, broke away, and running to the back door, made his escape down a lane.

Besides these two cases, the prisoner admitted to the police this morning that he had made out a cheque for $16.00, signed by a T. H. Bowen, and payable to Chas. A. Anderson. This he cashed in Mayer's clothing store on Jasper avenue. A charge of obtaining goods by false pretences has been laid in the case, as the cheque was worthless and the police do not think that such a person as T. H. Bowen exists.

Admits Other Offences.
Danes also admits that he stole a letter from the post office addressed to Charles A. Anderson, in which was a cheque for $2, signed by T. N. Bowden. After endorsing this cheque he claims he had it cashed at the Bank of Montreal.

Interesting Personality.
Desire Danes is a young fellow, twenty-four years of age, dark, with a slight mustache, and is rather stout. He is well dressed and has a good address. He is an old country Frenchman, and says he came to Canada a number of years ago from the town of Cavignac in the province of Brittany. He claims to have been in the West for about four years and has been and done nearly everything imaginable, even assisting in the work of the Peace River landing mission.

The case came up for a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Cowan in the police court this afternoon. E. B. Cogswell is conducting the case for the Crown.

The police had been watching the boxes at the post office for a week and had just about decided that the alleged thief had left town, when their patience was rewarded this morning.

The crime of stealing letters while in the post is punishable by life imprisonment, as is also forgery. The minimum penalty for the former is three years in the penitentiary.

ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY.

What may be rightly called the first ordinary meeting of St. George's Society under the new regime, was held last evening in Houston's Hall. The president, A. W. Chaffland, was in the chair, and there was a large attendance.

The matter of a permanent meeting place was left to the new executive. In order to readjust the rules a special committee, Messrs. W. Parish, W. J. Thomas, E. B. Williams and T. A. K. Turner was elected and will at once get to work on their important mission. It was decided to invite distinguished visitors to the meetings, the first guest being T. Bramley, Moore, M.P. for Lloydminster and an Englishman proud of his nationality. J. K. Cornwall, M.P. for Peace River, is also to receive an invitation to once again address the society. The members have many pleasant remembrances of his last speech.

A musical programme followed in which F. P. Hobson, F. A. Wadley, E. Trape, E. Fidler, Geo. Blomert, Ed. Ambler, Murphy and Williams took part.

The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save the King."

AT THE EMPIRE

A large and enthusiastic audience gathered at the Empire theatre last evening to witness the charming English comedy "The Brixton Bargain," as presented by the National Stock Company. Seven boxes were occupied by members of the Alberta legislature and about forty-five members were present. The production is a comedy in three acts, with an exceptionally strong cast of characters. The process of the unfolding of the plot is intensely absorbing and holds the audience from start to finish without a dull moment. Each of the characters of the play as produced last night seemed particularly adapted to his or her own part, and this together with a certain style of finish that is only possible with untiring preparation and which was evident throughout the performance made the event one to be remembered by theatre-goers of Edmonton.

MARKS BROS COMING

Marks Bros. Co., who have been increasing with marked success all along the line, will begin a week's engagement at the Edmonton Opera House, February 28th, and will give three distinct changes of plays and specialties during the week opening on Monday night with the new refined Southern comedy drama, "Down Where the Orange Blossoms Grow."

This play deals with life on the plantation, and is interspersed with negro melodies and airs. There will be a continuous performance, refined vaudeville doing away with all tiresome antics between acts.

ers, who seemed fearful and harmless.

Just as they whirled their horses round, raised their clubs over their heads, and rode right at the little mob, it split and vanished in a hundred different directions. That was all, the riders laughed again and took their posts.

It is fairly certain that there will be no more rioting unless it is some of the cars in the outlying districts of the city perhaps are attacked under cover of the darkness. The trouble now has resolved itself into a plain everyday strike. The rapid transacting today advertised for 2000 men to manage cars. It placed the advertisement in the newspapers from here south to Richmond, and said it did not want strike breakers, but men who were looking for permanent jobs, which it would guarantee. If it gets the men the strike will be at an end.

Just Good Enough To Be Dangerous

If poor advertising mediums were ENTIRELY worthless they would not be dangerous! For they could not, then, make any appeal whatever to sensible advertisers.

But an advertising medium which has a LITTLE MERIT is, like "a little knowledge," a "dangerous thing." Some business men there are, always, who--for considerations of "cheapness," etc.,--will either rely upon such mediums wholly, or give them an absurdly large part in their advertising campaigns.
